

Parental Consent For Realm Gamers 13 And Under

I understand that the Realm has established Rules of the Realm governing participation in the activities available at the Realm in order to help keep the Realm a fun, fair and safe place to participate in esports.

I acknowledge that I have read these rules and discussed them with the participant(s) named below and agree that I and they will abide by these rules or they may lose their participation privileges at the discretion of Realm management. I acknowledge and agree to the GG Leap (game software service provider) terms and conditions which are made available upon first sign-on to the service.

I also understand that certain games available at the Realm may have an intended audience of 14 years and older. I acknowledge that I have discussed with the below-named gamers which games they may play at the Realm and that it is my and their responsibility to only participate in those games. I agree that the Realm will not be responsible for managing such access to any games.

I understand that from time to time certain game activities or tournaments at the Realm may be photographed, recorded and/or live streamed to the Internet. Therefore I acknowledge the Realm has my permission to record, use, and distribute images and recorded video of the below-named participant(s) and myself solely for its business purposes.

Finally, I understand that the Realm will be unavailable to gamers 14 and younger after 10 pm each evening.
